

Literally Speaking

Developing the literacy skills of adults to empower them to achieve greater success in their lives

Proclamation of Literacy Day by NB City Council

Memorial Award. This year's award, presented by volunteer extraordinaire Helene Chaban, was given to Anna Kwon. Helene shared why Anna was so deserving of this honor. In her acceptance, Anna spoke about her achievements during her at time PAL - from getting her Nursing License to becoming a citizen and learner leader while even improving her parenting!

Finally, to illustrate the significance of the program and to showcase the progress of PAL's adult learners, every guest received a copy of "In Our Own Words", a collection of stories,

Learner Cristina & Tutor Susan sharing contribution to In Our Own Words poems, and essays written by the learners of the program.

Thank you to all who came and made this day so special. PAL is the program it is because of our supportive and caring literacy community.

PAL Added to 2022 Nonprofit Top-Rated List

The reviews are in, and PAL is honored to be on the Great Nonprofit's top-rated list for the 9th straight year, and it is all thanks to the tutors, learners, and volunteers who are the backbone of this program. An extra special thank you goes to all those who posted a review!

Are you ready to get involved in PAL?

We are looking for a couple of amazing people to join our Advisory Board. If you care about your community, believe everyone deserves a chance to succeed, and have a couple hours a month to 'give back', this could be the volunteer opportunity for you. If joining the board sounds like a fit for you, visit: bit.ly/PAL-BOARD

Thank you, Kappa Kappa Gamma Alumnae

Kappa Kappa Gamma Orange County Alumnae Association has generously supported PAL over the years, and this year was no exception. At their annual "Author Under the Stars" event, they featured PAL and encouraged their members to support the program. Thank you to this amazing group of women.
